Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the subject matter of claims 30-46 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

The drawings are objected to because there are two sets of drawings, one has two sheets and the other only has one. Applicant is required to select which set is supposed to be his formal drawings in this case.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the examiner does not accept the changes, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 3681

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 24-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 24, and other claims, the same reference numeral is used to identify different components, which is confusing. For example, in line 6-7, “the drive shaft (1)” has the same reference numeral applied to “a first shaft (1)” of line 8. In line 7, “the output shaft (2)” has the same reference numeral to “a second shaft (2)” in line 10. If these are intended to be the same shafts, then they must be recited identically. Applicant cannot rely on the reference numerals to convey meaning to his recited subject matter.

In claim 30, “wherein additional free wheelings can be used on any suitable position” is vague and therefore indefinite.

Prior Art Discussed

The examiner has considered the references cited by applicant in his Information Disclosure Statements filed December 20, 2004, March 28, 2005, and June 6, 2005. None of the references show all of the features of the claimed invention, nor do they show that it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in this art at the time the invention was made to combine features therefrom to create the claimed invention.

The references cited by the examiner are deemed pertinent to applicant’s disclosure. The published applications 2006/0068965, 2005/0209043, and 2005/0255958 do not recited conflicting subject matter. None of the references show all of the features of the claimed invention, nor do they show that it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in this art at the time the invention was made to combine features therefrom to create the claimed invention.
